

Welcome

to the

Portico Participants' Meeting

ALA, Washington D.C.

June 23, 2007

8:00 – 8:30 a.m.      Breakfast

8:30 – 10:00 a.m.      Program

Portico Highlights and News

- 38 publisher participants; 6,100+ titles committed
- Approximately 88% of titles covered by optional perpetual access rider
- 362 library participants; 283 domestic, 79 international (8 countries beyond U.S.)
- Holdings Comparison Service now available
- Significant expansion of ingest capacity; more news forthcoming

Portico Highlights and News

- E-book Preservation Pilot now launched
- Goal: Develop a robust approach that addresses the technological and economic challenges of long-term e-book preservation and future access
- Anticipated timeline: June 2007 – December 2007
- Publishers and libraries participating

Portico Highlights and News

Publishers Pilot Participants:

- American Mathematical Society
- Morgan and Claypool
- Elsevier
- Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development
- Taylor and Francis
- Others forthcoming

Portico Highlights and News

Library Pilot Participants:

- California Digital Library / UC system
- Case Western Reserve University
- Cornell University
- McGill University (Canada)
- SOLINET
- University College of London (U.K.)
- University of Montana
- University of New England (Australia)
- University of Texas system
- Yale University
- York College

Questions?

Always feel free to contact us.
participation@portico.org

www.portico.org

